Queen City Trading, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Meet terrorism s worst enemy in BookLife Award s 2016 Quarter Finalist From the best-selling award winning author critics hail as one of the strongest thriller writers on our scene comes an unforgettable story of an unlikely anti-hero. Robert Garcia was an unremarkable man, tapped out of a promising military career to become a death squad assassin for the CIA. Retirement was not in the cards for Robert, so he disappeared instead. After he comes out of the cold to answer the call to aid a fellow soldier facing a bum rap, he is thrust back into the spotlight when he is in the wrong place at the wrong time and kills a terrorist, thereby saving dozens of lives. He finds gainful employment in the slaughter of jihadists, which sparks an urban legend that Robert, a dangerous and unfeeling assassin, is a living paladin, whose mission is to rid the earth of evil for the betterment of mankind. Social media gives him the name: Paladine and God help whoever gets between him and his next target. Discover what critics are saying about this new terrorism thriller: In this well-written and fast-paced thriller, the author demonstrates skill not only with plot, but with character -- and character is what makes this book stand out. An ill-fated love story and an irresistible dog only deepen what could be just another hit-man-killing-jihadists story. -- Publisher s Weekly, Booklife Prize in Fiction A satisfyingly original, compelling piece that moves well beyond genre writing and into the realm of military precision, insight, and adventure, linking action into modern-day pursuits and concerns with the precision of a surgeon. Highly recommended reading for anyone looking for a protagonist and purpose...
