BORROWED LANDSCAPES (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Carcenet Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Borrowed Landscapes, Peter Scupham's first book since his acclaimed Collected Poems of 2002, explores a hinterland of enchantment and nightmare, a landscape whose contours reach back to Shakespeare's England by way of two world wars and a coming of age shaped by the Suez crisis and the Cold War. The barbarities of the twentieth century haunt the shadows; there is comfort in the graces of domestic life, in friendships and long memories, in cats and gardens and eccentricities. A sequence of poems honours the life of a scholarly father-in-law who fought in the Great War. In a parallel autobiographical sequence, Playtime in a Cold City, three undergraduate years in the 1950s become a touchstone for a lost pastoral, before the fields of youth fade to memory, the lit faces of dead friends, /laughing. Generous, witty and shrewd, Borrowed Landscapes affirms Scupham's belief that when a murderous crew of sorcerer's apprentices turn is to was, there is only a pen to turn was to is.
