Excerpt from The Good-Natured Bear: A Story for Children of All Ages The stove was red hot in some places, so they were obliged to open its door widely, and then every body saw what a bustle the fire was in, puffing and blazing away inside. On the top of the stove was a large dish of stewed prunes, smoking hot, and all round the dish were chestnuts roasting as fast as ever they could roast, and sometimes cracking and ?ying over the children s heads in all directions, and sometimes right amongst them, which made a great shouting and scrambling out of the way, and great fun, of course.
