Excerpt from The Interior of the Kingdom In the Beatitudes we have the real mountain of God. It is the mountain of benediction and blessing. To secure its blessings it must be climbed. Many View it and admire it at a distance, but they are too much attached to the cosmetic attractions of the valley to begin to climb. But the spiritual climber alone enjoys its blessing. Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon that have I given unto you. Mountain climbing is irksome, it is real soul-work, but it is the only way to the moun tain top. Every step in the upward march developsspiritual muscle and bone; it strengthens the soul and dilates the heart. Who will ascend into the hill of the Lord? With the Holy Spirit we may climb to the top, and from Zion s lofty peak we may gaze on the thrilling visions of the Kingdom of God. The King s daughter is all glorious within. The higher we climb upward, great things become greater, and small things become smaller. Hence, the mountain top is the meeting-place of the radiant inner circle. Here they are above the fog; here they understand each other. Here they walk in the light as He is in the light, and We have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin. The object of this book is to show the way to the mountain top. Many professing Christians are liv ing perpetually in the valley; hence, they have no peace, no joy, no strength. Others live on the northern slope of the mountain where there are perpetual mists, and frost...
