Arthur H. Stockwell Ltd, United Kingdom, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. For all of you out there who enjoyed reading my book Watching the World, this is the book you've been waiting for. A kind of follow-up, packed with lots more anecdotal stories from here, there and everywhere. There's stories from when I'm on my travels, walking round the supermarket, job interviews, staying over for a bed and breakfast, and, tell me, where would we be without the great British public and what they manage to get up to in restaurants? There's even stories of what happened when I was just minding my own business (very rare, I hear you say!). For those of you who have not read Watching the World (not that there can be many left of you who haven't), after you have read this book I can thoroughly recommend reading it. It will give you a more in-depth look at certain subjects where this book just merely skims the surface of what people really get up to when they think no one is watching. In the meantime, I hope you enjoy Dancing with Chihuahuas, and that you get as much pleasure from reading it as I did compiling and writing it. One last thought for you all. If something should happen to you during your day, however trivial, and you thought no one was watching, trust me, they were!
