AMG Publishers. Paperback. Condition: New. 192 pages. Dimensions: 10.4in. x 8.3in. x 0.3in. Runners take your mark. . . where I'm new to this, I didn't even know I was in a race! The Bible likens the Christian life marathon. The apostle Paul said, "Run in such a way that you may win." Following God-First Steps for the New Christian will help you start out on the right foot and stay there with practical studies designed to get new runners in shape to finish the race. As a new or maturing Christian, you probably have many questions about your faith and are struggling to find the answers. Don't feel alone! In this book, Eddie Rasnake vividly recalls his own early struggles and insecurities. He felt compelled to write this book in an effort to encourage new believers in their faith. Designed as a twelve-week study course, each lesson has been prepared to ground you in an essential stepping-stone of the faith. In the pages of this book you will find answers to the following questions: What is your position in Christ - as a Christian? How about your inheritance? What is spiritual growth, and what is not spiritual growth? How should a Christian deal with sin? How important are Bible study, prayer, and meditation to the Christian walk? What should Christians do to cultivate the gifts, talents, and opportunities God gives each one of us? Throughout your study, you will be enriched by the many interactive application sections that literally thousands have come to appreciate from the acclaimed Following God series. Most importantly, you will understand that the precepts in this book are the essentials you will never outgrow in your walk with God. They are the principles you will live out until the Lord returns or calls you home. This item...
