Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Practical Prescribing and Dispensing: For Medical Students It is not unusual to hear a complaint that medical students receive an education which is defective, in so far as relates to the writing of prescriptions. There are some who even venture to say that the present great vogue of factory-made medicines among medical practitioners is due to this defect. The facilities provided in many schools of medicine for the teaching of this subject are so scanty as to lead one to think that the complaint is not altogether without foundation; and the books dealing with it are, in not a few instances, lacking in definiteness of aim. The medical man neither requires a training in the methods of tincture making, nor in the manufacture of sulphuric acid; still less does he need to be taught how to dispense incompatible prescriptions. These are branches of pharmacy which may well be left to the pharmacist. In order, however, to be able to avail himself of the ample resources of the national Pharmacopoeia, and to equip himself so as...

Reviews

It is one of my personal favorite publications. Indeed, it actually performs, still an amazing and interesting literature. It has been printed in an exceptionally easy way which is merely soon after I finished reading this book where it really altered me, changing the way I believe.
