

A Gypsies Tale Volume 2

By Julie Sandilands

Purple Flame Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 106 pages. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.8in. x 0.5in. Late autumn 1967. After being banished from Tyndale by the angry villagers, the Gypsies head north and set up camp in Appleby, traditionally a safe haven for the Travelling community, especially in the summer. Ryan befriends Hawkeye, a local gamekeeper, and is quickly made aware that something sinister lurks in the countryside surrounding the quiet town. Forming an unlikely alliance with Ed and Ollie, (two local badgers), the boys find themselves lost in a world of intrigue and suspense. Between them, the group have to uncover the true mystery behind the evil, and, even worse, try to stop it before it threatens not just the countryside, but the inhabitants of Appleby itself. A Gypsies Tale is a gripping story that will leave you on the edge of your seat. A delightful tale suitable for both adults and children. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
