

Remember to Dream: For Tomorrow Must Come (Paperback)

By Rita L Nicholson

Strategic Book Publishing Rights Agency, LLC, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The poetry in Remember to Dream: For Tomorrow Must Come deals with serious subjects such as depression and healing. According to author Rita L. Nicholson, we tie so much of our self-image into our profession. In some jobs such as nursing, it is not about the money, but a true vocation. In my field of nursing I have seen firsthand how every soul is taken to the point of having to re-invent themselves. It matters not so much how we got there, but what we do once we arrive. About the Author: Rita L. Nicholson started writing poetry at the age of eight and began playing guitar at twelve. She developed her self-taught writing skills through her work as an RN. Being a trained observer and having to use short formats were instrumental in the development of her style. I grew up with the Beatles and all the unparalleled singer/songwriters of the late 60s and early 70s. I hope that my writing will promote one's own vast healing powers that lie within. Mentally holding on to a meaningful picture,...
