SIXTH GRADE STUDENTS' PERCEPTIONS OF A DIFFERENTIATED MATHEMATICS MODEL

VDM Verlag Jul 2008, 2008. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 220x150x9 mm. Neuware - The purpose of my study was to analyze sixth grade students perceptions regarding their performance (understanding of concepts, self-efficacy and engagement) at a selected intermediate school to determine how best to implement a differentiated mathematics instructional model. Quantitative data using convenience sampling were collected from 199 students that returned the permission slips and completed the survey. These students participated in the differentiated mathematics instructional model once a...
