The first section discusses the things I had to go through in order to heal from a break up: the confusion I felt, the anger, forgiveness, understanding why it wouldnt work. The second part discusses how, its not necessarily losing the person that is the struggle, but rather an identity crisis, and how I overcame that identity crisis, through traveling, going to yoga, and really, just observing the world around me. No matter where we are in the dating cycle every single, the very beginnings of a relationship, in a relationship, or getting over a relationship we are always in some kind of state of suffering.
