In the meantime, we, as teachers, convinced of the necessity, will strive to do part of the work, the results of which will, in time, produce a favorable impression. Probably the main reason for this paper is to bring to the attention of teachers a few plans which may be used to start the systematic movement. This part of the discussion shall be mainly from the high school view point. True to our American custom, when anything is to be undertaken, the first step is the creation of a committee; for everybody s business is nobody s business. This vocational guidance committee should plan and organize different methods. The first great task, especially if it is...
