Surprising Alliances: Eclipse Dynamics in Markets Geopolitics (Paperback)

By Tim Bost

Harmonic Research Associates, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Exactly what does a solar eclipse mean for economic trends, for geopolitical affairs, and for the market actions and trends that can create the potential upheavals so likely in those broad-based arenas? That s the primary focus of this book. As a planet, we get at least two solar eclipses during each calendar year, as the shifting celestial dynamics of Earth, Moon, and Sun create specific alignments at predictable intervals. Those solar eclipses vary in scope and intensity - some are partial eclipses, with the Moon just covering a portion of the Sun s visible orb. Others are annular events, with the corona of the Sun creating a ring of fire effect as the Moon obscures most of the solar surface. Still others are total eclipses, with the Sun completely hidden behind the Moon. Even though solar eclipses are not rare, some of them take on much stronger roles in the public consciousness than others. That fluctuation in awareness is largely due to the attention that s generated in the specific geographic areas in which the eclipse is visible to the naked eye....
