

A Vision of the Aquarian Age (Paperback)

By George Trevelyan

White Crow Books, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .THIS BOOK is in no sense dogma to be believed. It is an attempt at exploration of Ideas which are alive and can therefore enter our consciousness and bring change. We can all recognise the faculty for apprehending an idea for its very beauty. We seize it out of the ether, with a feeling that s lovely, that gives meaning to life . And then, all too often, the cold intellect comes in and says, Oh, no you don t! You can t prove that and you must not accept what cannot be demonstrated to the senses . But we are exploring the supersensible worlds. The technique is to take these ideas (if we like them) and learn to live with them as if we believed, while at the same time reserving judgement and watching life in the light of them. Then there is no need for argument, that debased form of human exchange. Ideas of this sort are alive and will therefore draw to themselves a certainty as one lives with them. A remarkable change is taking place in the...
