Resurgent Republic, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. University Cheryl Glenn (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Whit Ayres provides both a diagnosis of the GOP s problems and a prescription for the cure. In plain language with do s and don ts for Republican candidates and campaigns, Ayres has written the best analysis of current American politics I have read in years. -- Charlie Cook, Editor and Publisher, Cook Political Report --//-- Society is changing at unprecedented speeds, and these changes are having dramatic effects on the American political landscape. 2016 and Beyond explores public opinion on hot-button issues like immigration, health care, gay rights, abortion, national security, taxes and spending, and the role of government. With unsparing honesty, 2016 and Beyond explains how GOP candidates must adapt to these changes to win the presidency without compromising Republican principles. --//-- Leading GOP pollster Whit Ayres draws upon 30 years of campaign experience and data-driven research from his own firm and that of other highly-respected polling organizations to deliver this insightful commentary. The result is a fascinating and highly readable exploration of how new candidates, new messages, and a new tone are needed for Republicans to win the presidency in the New America. --//-- 2016 and Beyond belongs in the arsenal of any political junkie, candidate, or student of the game. --//-- For years, no Republican has thought more deeply than Whit Ayres about the implications for his party of the demographic and cultural changes remaking America. In this engaging and accessible book, he s produced an intriguing roadmap to this new landscape that should be essential reading for any Republican who wants to win back the White House in 2016; any Democrat who wants to stop them; and anyone else who wants to understand the...
