A Doctor in Strange Places (Paperback)

By John Rogans MD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A life of travel and adventure? Impossible. He was a shy kid in London, with no ambitions, a humble background, even a mild cockney accent. In the British Army in the 1950s that would have been deadly. But Lady Luck stepped in before he was drafted and he lost the accent. He became An Officer of Engineers. His brother officers talked about college after the army. No one in his family had been to college, but, why not? Plus with another bit of luck he became a Film Extra. You might have seen him in Around the World in 80 Days. His father, a Dutchman had emigrated to England. The genes ran true and he ran away to Canada, and then to America, the lands of opportunity. He became a civil engineer in Labrador, building radar stations in the land of ice and snow, missionaries and Eskimos, and dog team patrols with the Mounties. Lady Luck then moved him to Vancouver, Canada s fun city, full of young adventurers. There he met a young woman, slim and shy, pretty and...
