Brighton Publishing LLC, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Push forward, push back, push to the side--one way or another you are going to move with the times. With some occurrences, it is impossible to keep changes at bay, we must go forward. With others, it is possible to side step the alteration .while other changes push us harshly into the bank of the creek. When there, we become the power to alter the path of society, or not. As in all the volumes of the Lone Moon Creek series, Book Five--Meanderings, pushes hard to maintain a standard of goodness and ethics in the tumultuous stream of relativism and disconnectedness. The many characters who have entered the pages of this series in the past, and now the characters in Meanderings, bring their stories with them. Somehow they all rub shoulders with someone who gives them a little push, or maybe not so little, toward the outer edge of the meandering stream of society, to where they have a chance to change their lives. Characters, who were left stranded in previous volumes, often float back into the short story venue to make a significant change in their lifestyle. Agnes and Marjory continue to stay at the forefront of each story, not for any earth shaking reason, but just to display the continuity of small towns. They have, however, brought along information about themselves for the reader to digest. Have you been putting the pieces of their lives together like a puzzle? Meander through the stories to discover the new lives of those pushed to the limit. Did they embrace the change of betterment or resign to mediocrity? Did Zoe, the Juvenile Delinquent who desecrated the Shrine ever really change? Did Willie from...
