The children are delighted with the books you sent them. I meant to write to Fields by this steamer, but fear I shall not have time. Please to convey to him my thanks for his slice of cake, and warmest congratulations on his marriage. Your friend, Nath1 Hawthorne. Liverpool, Febry 2d, 1855. Dear Ticknor, The apples have come to hand in fine order; and we thank you for them most sincerely. The package of newspapers and letters was detained at the Custom House, a day or two. This happens whenever a new officer takes charge of the steamer; but all difficulties might be obviated if Mr. Glyn (the Despatch Agent) would be kind enough to put the official seal and label on the parcel. The package need not even have my name on it, nor be in any way distinguished from those that are to be transmitted to the Minister; for I shall be sure to recognize it. In accordance with orders from the State Department, I am entitled to receive my own private letters c. by the same conveyance with the despatches; and the above is the only method by which their prompt delivery can be secured. The Custom House authorities always give them up, but only after I have been put to the inconvenience of...
