Robert D. Larranaga, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. 2nd ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .He Was Dying to Coach, But Not About To Take a Bullet For It Wounded warrior and amputee Ron Canfield rebounds from PTSD to land a job as basketball coach at the high school where he once starred. But the teacher s union challenges Ron s mental stability, and irate parents demand that he play white kids ahead of more talented blacks. The stakes are high. The starters on his team have a shot at basketball scholarships worth more than $200,000. People have been killed for less. Much less. They ve been killed for a pair of high tops. But, as a Marine, Ron was trained to run toward the sound of gunfire. And, as a proud African American man, he is not about to be covered by knuckle-dragging racists. With the season opener a week away, Ron learns he is in the crosshairs of a stalker. Will Ron s training as a scout sniper enable him to track down his foe before he strikes in a high school gym filled with fifteen hundred screening fans?.
