Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this sequel to you Don t Need a Passport to Move to New Mexico the ride continues s you further explore the wild, wacky west that is New Mexico. Home on the Strange introduces you to some of the odd sights, both natural and man-made that are part of The Land of Enchantment s bizarre landscape. Ecclectic yard decor, other worldly visitors, awesome natural wonders and kooky roadside curiosities combine to make New Mexico seem like a whole different world! Meet Sunny the dinosaur. The 4:10 Roadrunner and find out why the state s motto is It Grows as it Goes. Are there really aliens in New Mexico? You Betcha! All this and much more ca be found in the pages of home on the Strange ! Debora Carr was born and raised in the central New Jersey area, graduating from Rutgers University with a BA in Art Education in 1980 and became a successful professional graphic artist and packaging designer. She chose to accompany her parents when they decided to relocate to and retire in Albuquerque, New Mexico in 2003, where she continued her chosen profession of graphic artist, working as a one-person art department for a small print shop. She continued to keep in touch with friends and family members back east by means of periodic humorous newsletters which she called her Albu-Quirky Journals in which she detailed her perspective on life in New Mexico. She later collected some of these reports and rewrote them in a tongue-in-cheek essay form, emulating the short stories written by two of her favorite authors, James Thurber and Mark Twain and published them in her first book,...
