Not illustrated. 1882 Excerpt: .for registration the schedules of questions furnished by the Commissioners of Pharmacy, to which the applicants were required to write their answers, under oath, in the presence of the assistant examiner. This, however, was abandoned at our meeting in May, 1884; and since that time all applicants for registration have been required to appear before a Commissioner of Pharmacy at Fort Madison, Des Moines or Fort Dodge, on the first or third Tuesday of any month, except occasionally the fall Board have held meetings to examine candidates for registration at Marshalltown, Council Bluffs and Des Moines. In methods of conducting examinations before one Commissioner, and in various matters in the administration of the law, the Commissioners of Pharmacy find it necessary to administer an oath, and recommend the law be amended, extending to them the legal right to administer oaths any place in the State, as examinations are held at various places over the State, and the rights conferred upon notaries public does not extend outside of the county in which he resides. ITINERANT LICENSE. The present law relating to the license of itinerant vendors of medicines has been found to be impractical, except so far i it relates to traveling doctors, and in our last biennial report we recommended a change, which was as follows: Referring to section 10, relating to itinerant vendors, we have to report that no money or license fee has been collected for the reason that section 12 contains an exemption...
