Kaja Ericson s willful disobedience destroyed her life and cast a shadow of despair upon all her descendants. Do we really choose our own destiny, or do we become a link in the chain of tragedy that surrounds our ancestors? See the brutal outcome of sin as the Widening Road of Kaja s family is filled with clay and mire. Do you believe that abuse follows from generation to generation? When a child is abused, does that child someday go on to abuse their own loved ones? The cycle of abuse if often one stained by the blood of the innocent and the loss of sanity that accompanies it. Book Two, The Widening Road, continues the Rubies Saga as Kaja s descendants search for happiness while journeying a road filled with clay and mire. Kaja Ericson committed a sin of disobedience; her own daughter Marty follows in her mother s footsteps. What comes about because of these actions is the destruction of a child s life and a future filled with ambiguity and senseless pain. When Kaja Ericson decided to ignore her parents wishes she began a chain of tragedy that does not seem to be broken. After the loss of her children in Norway, Kaja put all her hopes and dreams into her daughter Marty. Again, those dreams soon become a nightmare of doubt and confusion. In Book One of the Rubies Family Saga we see Marty falling into the same pattern of deception as her mother, Kaja. That disobedience leads to the suffering of her daughter, Stacey. In Book Two, The Widening Road, we see Marty determined to right...
