Jonas and his friends have been sold into slavery and taken to Bront where certain death in the Arena await them. The worst part is, Jonas doesn't have his sharism to protect or free them. All the while, Emma struggles to summit Wisbren's mount to summon the stormdragon, unsure if she can trust her new helper. Lord Stilth is determined the pair are doomed and as Emma climbs the skies to complete her task, his most powerful demon mounts her attack. Jonas's real life is nearly just as uncertain as his fantasy one. His parents aren't any closer to making peace and just when Jonas thinks things might be getting better, Emma's health takes a startling turn. In this fourth book of the Jonas Flash Chronicles, The only thing Jonas can cling to, is his fantasy world where his adventure takes on a deeper meaning than ever before.
