

Betrayal Between the Sheets (Paperback)

By Drica Armstrong

Double Take Publications, LLC, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Richard had the world in the palm of his hand with the love of his wife, child, and friends. There was nothing Richard wanted more except more time with his wife, Vivian. Four years after they got married and two years after the birth of their daughter, Eva, Vivian was killed in a car accident leaving Richard behind to cope with the loss of his better half. Richard and Vivian's childhood friends, Tara and Dylan, and his mother, Lena, aided Richard in the process of getting on with his life. Vivian's death caused a shakeup among the family, but nothing was compared to Lena's wrath when Richard betrayed Vivian by marrying Tara, just two years later. Years later Richard still struggled with Vivian's passing as he tried to keep Tara and Lena from killing each other. Lena loved Vivian like a daughter and was not happy about anyone taking her place, especially Tara. While Lena spent her time plotting to get Tara away from her son and grand-daughter, Tara fought for her husband's attention from...
