Mr. Geo. H. Shibley, Chairman of the National Non-Partisan Federation for Majority in Cities, writes from Washington, D. C.: The outlook is magnificent. The ease with which the Trade Union and Farmers can be federated is shown by what is already accomplished, see page 78 and 79 of our pamphlet - the Executive Council of the A. F. of L. agreed last September, you will see, to urge the application of the Winnetka System. There is no question but that we can easily get all the labor organizations and all the farmers organizations, and by that time can get the businessmen s associations; and the reform element in the Democratic party, which now has control of the national organization, must adopt this plan, for it is the only means whereby they can instruct at the primaries and thereby hold the organization. With such a declaration at the Democratic primaries, the Republican organization will be obliged to acquiesce. That means the fight will be won. In the meantime, we must make the fight in Cities and States. The Kansas Populists have agreed to make the Referendum and Initiative the State issue, and of course they will adopt the most easy campaign methods. In Colorado, we are told by Senator Pattison that Denver is sure to adopt the Referendum and Initiative in all matters, and this will insure the carrying of the State on the issue. We advise friends to write him about the organization of local bodies. A Constitutional Convention is being held at Hartford to revise a document...
