Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Fear pressed in upon Lisa from every side. Darkness laid a blanket of dread that whispered panic with every heartbeat. Above that whisper was the overwhelming sound of the forest, alive and threatening. And cold. Lisa was freezing from her face to her hands and the chill was migrating upwards from her feet. She huddled, curled into a small ball, shivering and trying to breathe without sound or puffs of steam . . . trying to become invisible to any enemy lurking just beyond her vision. Twigs snapped and something big and threatening was suddenly silhouetted under the pines. Lisa clinched her jaw and refused to let loose the scream peaking within her mind. Once more she recognized that she was dreaming. She reached out for the light, knowing that Jason would come, that she needn t face this threat alone. She reached out, searching . . . and coming up empty. Fear moved in closer, clutching at her heart and chasing away every drop of hope. Lisa bolted upright in her bed, her hand reaching out for the lamp with lightening speed. With a simple click the darkness fled and she looked around her familiar room. It wasn t much, just a bed with a blue cover, a bookcase, and a dresser with the tiny, invaluable lamp. It was just The Terror as she had come to think of the lifelong nightmare. When she was a little girl, she would lay in bed after the dream, barely breathing, gathering courage to reach out her hand to the light. In those endless moments between the dream and full wakefulness the emotions within her would erupt into explosions of dark...
