When beginning to write the six novels covering the Abraham Lincoln Assassination Trial of the Century in 1865, I learned more about history than I could ever have imagined. In one of my novels written in 2014, Sisters of Mercy - The Runaway Scrape, a story about how brave Sam Houston was on the battlefield and how Texas won their independence is written in textbooks by the victors, the Texians. You might ask yourself, what history did my story come from. from the writings of Dilue Rose Harris and the Runaway Scrape, of course. The Texians won, so history was written by the victors. Can you read or speak Spanish? If so, pick up the history books written by historians from Mexico City. It tells a complete different story, but, of course, there is no truth to what they say, right? In the Lincoln Assassination, the history we have been taught is that which was written by the Northern newspapers. ones such as Harper s Weekly, The New York Tribune or the Washington Evening Star. Their narratives of events and how the North either won or lost different battles have a complete different version from those written by Southern newspapers. Look in textbooks and you will find most of what the Northern journalists wrote got transitioned into these books of education. During World War II, Winston Churchill is quoted as saying, History is written by the victors! I have been told that the North s only real claim to victory is that, because the North won, might tell fewer lies about their adversaries, the South. The North has put its stake in the ground and claims to control the past as...
