Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . When the doorbell rang, she slipped into a robe and went to answer it. Hi, Mrs. Moran. I m here to collect the empties. It was eighteen-year-old Frank Lawson, the milkman. She smiled at him and invited him in. Frank was a cute guy and she sometimes gave him a coke at the end of his route. She told him to follow her into the kitchen and poured a tall glass of coke for him and a beer for herself. They chatted as usual, but Connie found her eyes resting again and again on his crotch. There was a nice bulge pressing against his jeans, and for the first time she wondered if lads his age rutted a lot. He saw her looking at his fly, and he pressed his thighs together and put his hands over his crotch. Connie giggled. Don t cover yourself, she said. Be proud of your manhood. His face reddened, but she could tell he was pleased at the expression. She felt confident and in control. She could make him do whatever she wanted if she got him in bed. If she got him in bed! The thought, when it struck her with its full impact, startled her. Did she dare? Oh, God, he was much younger! But he looked so delicious! Trapped in a sexually unsatisfying marriage with selfish husband Bradley, Connie yearns to practice all those lascivious deeds and devices she reads about in the pages of her erotic books. She is desperate for some real attention, from a man or men who can turn her on and lift her to the heights of orgasmic abandon. It s not long before she...
