Banner of Truth. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 80 pages. Dimensions: 5.2in. x 3.6in. x 0.3in. The apostle Paul here had a double desire, one in regard of himself, to be with Christ; another, out of his love of Gods church and people, to abide still in the flesh; and between these two he is in a great strait, not knowing which to choose. But the love of the church of Christ triumphed in him, above the love of his own salvation, so as he was content, out of self-denial, to want the joys of heaven for a time, that he might yet further comfort the people of God. In the words you have, 1, St Pauls straits: 2, his desires that caused them, as in regard of himself, which was to be with Christ; so, in respect of the church of God, which was to abide still here, 3, the reasons of both, (1) to be with Christ is far better for me, (2) to abide in the flesh more needful for you; and 4, his resolution upon all, being willing for the churchs good still to abide here, rather than go to heaven and enjoy his own happiness. St Pauls soul was as a ship, between two winds, tossed up and down, and as iron between two loadstones, drawn first one way, then another; the one loadstone was his own good, to be in heaven; the other was the good of Gods people, to abide still in the flesh.
