CLOSET CONFESSIONS: THE CHRONICLES OF A DADDY S GIRL, VOLUME 2 (PAPERBACK)*DOWNLOAD

Keepers International, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Meredith Rucker (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This was the little girl that didn't have trouble making friends. This was the little girl that got in trouble for talking too much in class. This is the little girl that wrote poetry to escape her surroundings. This was the little girl that was told she would be just like her mother. This was the little girl that was told to keep house business in the house. This was the little girl that sat on the porch for hours waiting on her father to come. This was the little girl that got in trouble for opening the suitcase under her uncle's bed. This was the little girl that retreated to her closet to get away from the abuser. This was the little girl that believed she could buy love with her body. This was the little girl that wanted to take her life because her mother loved her brother more. This was the little girl that became a woman. This woman met God in her closet space and her life has never been the same! Every little girl wants the love of a father and nobody likes to be alone. She seeks her father's approval and he doesn't answer. Time and time again, the little girl calls out from her room and yet no one comes to her rescue. Each time she ends up rejected and abandoned. It's that place when you just want someone to hear your cry, anyone to come to your rescue. It's in the closet where you feel most secure. Sometimes people grow up and come out of the closet quickly, but other times it drags into their adult life and their relationships,...
