Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 128 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Excerpt from Outlines for Anatomy Students: A Guide to Dissection Based on Morriss Text-Book of Anatomy To the Student. In this outline the numbers refer to the pages and plates in Morriss Anatomy, dated 1895. (The numbers in parentheses refer to the edition of Morris dated 1893. This edition is identical with that dated 1895, with the exception of the paging.) Looking on the page referred to, it will be seen that the corresponding heading is printed in heavy-faced type, and the paragraph, or portion of paragraph following it, should be read. The structures of each region should be studied successively, in the order indicated by the outline. The student should carefully work out each structure, studying each part fully as it is exposed, comparing with the description in Morris. All structures should be carefully exposed in place in order that the relations may be properly studied and no part should be cut or removed except as indicated. When a heading is inclosed in a parenthesis it is to indicate that the structure mentioned cannot be fully exposed at that point in the work, but will be shown at another period of the dissection.
