A Magnificent Catastrophe: The Tumultuous Election of 1800, America's First Presidential Campaign

By Richard B Russell Professor of History and Talmadge Professor of Law Edward J Larson J.D., PH.D.

SIMON SCHUSTER, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 210 x 138 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title They could write like angels and scheme like demons. So begins Pulitzer Prize-winner Edward Larson's masterful account of the wild ride that was the 1800 presidential election an election so convulsive and so momentous to the future of American democracy that Thomas Jefferson would later dub it America's second revolution. This was America's first true presidential campaign, giving birth to our two-party system and indelibly etching the lines of partisanship that have so profoundly shaped American politics ever since. The contest featured two of our most beloved Founding Fathers, once warm friends, facing off as the heads of their two still-forming parties the hot-tempered but sharp-minded John Adams, and the eloquent yet enigmatic Thomas Jefferson flanked by the brilliant tacticians Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr, who later settled their own differences in a duel. The country was descending into turmoil, reeling from the terrors of the French Revolution, and on the brink of war with France. Blistering accusations flew as our young nation was torn apart along party lines: Adams and his elitist...
