

Killing Abel (Paperback)

By Michael Tieman

Christian Faith Publishing, Inc., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Killing Abel is a work of fiction based on the first passages of the book of Genesis in the Old Testament of the Christian Bible. From In the beginning . . . to the Great Flood, the Bible only says about two words per year of history, for that period on earth. Not very much. From Noah to Jesus, the Bible provides us with one hundred times that amount of history to guide man. Killing Abel takes the two words per year that God gave us, not changing a single one or changing a single context for those words, and fills in the gaps with the author s imagination. Any foundation for a coherent worldview must start at a logical place, and there is only one choice available for where to begin, in the beginning. If the underlying context is not Genesis 1:1, In the beginning . . . then it is a pretext. If you cannot trace your worldview back to a beginning, then what is it based on? If it has no beginning, then it has no foundation. Of all...
