Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Only a Volunteer, and Other Poems Memories of Mother There s a quaint old-fashioned cottage Midst the pine trees tall and fair, Where the beauty of the flowers With their fragrance fill the air, And the mill-stream in the meadow That flows gently on its way, Brings to mind fond recollections Of a mother old and gray. Just picture a mother with kindly eyes And a smile that was always true, With a heart of gold that ne er grew cold And was filled with love for you; As the soft rays of twilight came stealing O er the hills at the close of day, She whispered a prayer to heaven For the one who was far away. In a quiet little churchyard, Neath a weeping willow tree, Where the summer winds blow gently Sleeps the one so dear to me; Still in fancy I can see her As she bade farewell to me, Her spirit s ever near me, As I sail upon life s sea.
