Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When Jacob witnesses the Boston Massacre, he is spurred into joining his uncle in the radical murmurings of revolution and freedom-even though his father is decidedly against all such notions. When his uncle is killed in the Battles of Lexington and Concord, Jacob joins George Washington s troops and befriends inspiring patriot Nathan Hale, who in turn introduces him to the lovely Anne Bedford. As the war escalates around them, Jacob falls for Anne-and he learns that Anne, along with Hale, is part of a ring of American spies. Despite Jacob s surprise at Anne s true participation in the war, he marries her, and they begin to raise a family. Hannah Adams, adopted into the family of John and Abigail Adams, wants to be involved in America s founding: she wants to help write the US Constitution. Close friends with James Madison, she has many suggestions for improving the document. But can a woman get any credit for such an important contribution? As America s founding progresses, Jacob loses Anne to yellow fever, and Hannah wonders if she ll ever have her own family. When Jacob s and Hannah s paths cross, could they see each other as a chance to start a new life?.
