By ADA Negri

Italice Press, United States, 2010. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ada Negri, the author of ten volumes of poetry who enjoyed an international reputation for her frank and passionate writing, had a tormented love affair with a man whose life was cut short by premature death. She translated this experience into The Book of Mara, in essence one long poem arising from a woman's most intimate place as if in a visceral scream - a most passionate expression of love, loss and redemption. Written with unusual frankness, especially in view of Italian society of the time, The Book of Mara, along with Songs of the Island, is considered the high point of Negri's poetic work. Through metrical and formal execution, The Book of Mara demonstrates the originality of her verse, which opens up to a more personal dimension - almost prose-like. Her verse is impressionistic, almost mystical, spanned with bristling lyrics, sudden igniting bursts and visionary flashes. Negri's poetry was made by going deep inside herself, into the travail of her childhood, into the solitude and the sleeplessness around an uncertain future, into the wounds of sorrow and the...

Reviews

Just no terms to describe. This is for those who state that there was not a worth studying. I am just easily can get a enjoyment of studying a written ebook.
