THE REPROBATE

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Reprobate, a play which James described as better than The Album, opens with an unannounced stranger, Mrs. Freshville, appearing at Mr. Bonsor s Hampton Court villa. It develops that she is Nina, Paul Doubleday s lady friend, who spent time with him in Paris many years ago. For the past decade Paul has been kept under close control in the villa, well away from life s temptations, by his widowed stepmother Mrs. Doubleday and his co-guardian, the bachelor Bonsor. Blanche Amber, Bonsor s niece, meets Paul and dislikes how he is being treated almost as a child because others suspect him of a dissolute and unreliable nature. Meanwhile, Captain Chanter is pursuing Mrs. Doubleday. After many trials, tribulations, entrances, and exits, Blanche accepts Paul s marriage proposal, which gets him out of his isolation. The reprobate Paul turns out to be mature and responsible. To make the ending even happier, Mrs. Doubleday embraces Chanter.
