By Annie Shipman Wilson

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Gold Gleams of Poetry The poems contained in this volume were written at irregular intervals during a period of more than thirty years, beginning far back in school days. These verses are so varied as to please most any reader. Among them are found appropriate recitations for almost any occasion - Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year, Easter, Children s Day, etc. If something suitable is desired for church, lodge, school, or indeed any other place of entertainment, a careful search of these pages will never disappoint you. Just what you want is here. Through many seasons I have wrought, Prospecting in the minds of thought, These humble specimens at last Into my readers hands are passed. Of poetry they show gold gleams, Their glitter sends through all my dreams A hope that time may yet unfold A shining vein of real gold. Accept, at present, these gold gleams. Let radiance of their glad beams Throw golden light on all life s way, And better, brighter, make each day. If, in the course of future years, A...
