Xulon Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 185 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A massive underground network of slavery cloaked in darkness and drenched in despair exists in our world today. Human trafficking is the second largest and fastest growing criminal industry in the world. This modern day slavery is a global problem and the United Nations believes it has reached epidemic proportions over the past decade. The Body of Christ cannot remain silent while countless victims suffer unimaginable brutality. This compelling Bible Study will educate you on the facts of human trafficking, equip you with a Biblical perspective on how God views this criminal activity, and empower you with an understanding of how God has called His people to respond. Ideal for small group study, the seven lessons in this book will encourage personal application to conform your thought patterns, attitudes, and actions towards the oppressed in society to the teachings of Scripture. Jennifer Brooks is the founder of Abundance In Him Ministries, Inc. and hosts Abundance In Him radio program. She authored the in-depth, interactive Bible study Stand In Awe, and is a speaker at retreats, conferences, and other ministry events. Truths of Scripture are communicated with passion and sincerity as Jennifer teaches from a heart in love with Jesus and a first-hand perspective of His life changing power. With an unswerving conviction that the Word of God is living and active, personal application is emphasized in all her teachings. Jennifer and her husband Joe have three children and are active members of Tabernacle Evangelical Presbyterian Church in Youngstown, Ohio where Jennifer teaches her much loved adult Sunday School class. Her educational background includes a Bachelor s Degree in Nursing from Youngstown State University.
