After losing his parents in a freak automobile accident, Ronnie Fisher decided anything requiring effort wasn't worth the hassle. Including studying and attending his last class required to finish college. But as luck would have it, he managed to find out a dark secret about his college professor that he was able to use to his advantage. Blackmail for the grade he needed got him his diploma, but also, more than he could have ever bargained for. The Professor, under the strain of having his secret discovered, committed suicide. Now, after a few years have passed, the professor is back and there is hell to pay. Add a problem with alcohol, stir in an abusive wife whose soul mission in life is to make Ronnie bleed, it all creates a recipe for a nightmare that never ends. Set in everyday suburbia, Ronnie and his family are anything but ordinary. Infidelity, betrayal, and a lover with murderous intentions are woven together to create a tale of suspense that is impossible to put down from the first page to the last. When you finish, you will thank God they are not your neighbors. Or are they This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
