

The Human Jungle

By Chongnae Cho

Chin Music Press Inc. Paperback. Condition: New. 432 pages. Dimensions: 7.5in. x 5.5in. x 1.1in. Equal parts muckraking novel, transnational love story, and socially engaged fiction, Cho Chongnae's The Human Jungle portrays China on the verge of becoming the world's dominant economic force. In this sweeping epic, readers meet migrant workers, Korean manufacturers out to save a few bucks, high-flying venture capitalists, street thugs and shakedown artists. The picture of China that emerges is at turns unsettling, awe-inspiring and heart-breaking. Chongnae deftly portrays a giant awakening to its own raw, volatile, and often uncontrollable power. Translators Bruce Fulton and Ju-Chan Fulton have condensed three of Chongnae's Korean novels, each which sold more than one million copies in South Korea, into this single English-language edition. Cho Chongnae is one of Korea's most important living writers. He is best known for a trio of massive historical novels: the ten-volume Taebaek Mountains (1989), the twelve-volume Arirang (1995), and the ten-volume Han River (2002). Cho lives in Seoul, South Korea. Bruce Fulton and Ju-Chan Fulton are the translators of numerous volumes of modern Korean fiction, including the award-winning women's anthologies Words of Farewell and Wayfarer, and, with Marshall R. Pihl, Land of Exile: Contemporary Korean...
