SNAPSHOTS OF A BRONX LOVE AFFAIR (PAPERBACK)

Esquire, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It is a simple story of a generation coming of age in a place and time we will not see the likes of again. Michael Mazen was a child of the Great Depression and grew up on the streets of the Bronx. Snapshots of a Bronx Love Affair, covering 60 years, is the story of his life before, during and after World War II. Few things are more painful than an unrequited love and his figured largely over a life of events, both great and mundane. That the love he held for her was captured only in brief moments, snapshots in time, didn't matter. That he lived and loved others was something we all aspire to and as a great singer once sang, The greatest thing you'll ever learn, is just to love, and be loved in return. Michael loved, and in return, was loved. This is a story of how the love of life (and a life of love) can burn brightly even in the darkest days and nights. About the Author: Martin Kroll was a teacher and an author. As an English teacher in the New York City school system for 35 years, guiding both junior high school and high school students in the study of literature and writing. His tenure included being a member of the faculties at both Herman Ritter Junior High School and Evander Childs High School. In his role as faculty advisor at Evander Childs, he nurtured numerous young and budding writers in publishing the school's literary magazine for many years. His literary career has included publication in New Voices and as a writing contributor to the screen play for Sweet Love Bitter (1967)....
