RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 62 pages. Original publisher: Washington, D. C. : U. S. Govt. Accountability Office, 2011 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)749968931 Subject: Terrorism -- Prevention -- Technological innovations -- United States -- Testing. Excerpt: . . . positions in the T and E directive, share some advisory, review, and oversight responsibilities. For example, both are responsible for advising program managers in developing T and E documentation and approving test and evaluation master plans. The TES Director is responsible for developing DHS T and E policy and the Director of Operational Test and Evaluation is to approve operational test plans and report to the ARB after assessing operational test reports. Since May 2009, the Director of Operational Test and Evaluation position has not been continuously filled according to the 28 current TES Director. In a November 2010 memo, the Under Secretary for Science and Technology designated one person as both the director of TES and the Director of Operational Test and Evaluation until further notice. e The T and E directive outlines the responsibilities of the TES Director and th Director of Operational Test and Evaluation. According to the directive, the TES Director is to establish the departments testing and evaluation policies and processes and the Director of Operational Test and Evaluation is to administer those policies and processes. The directive also outlines TESs responsibilities in overseeing T and E across DHS components and its role in the acquisition review process. Table 1 describes TESs T and E responsibilities as outlined in the T and E directive for 29 all level 1, level 2, and special oversight acquisition programs. 28 For purposes in this report, we refer to TES Director and Director of Operational Test and Evaluation responsibilities generically as TES responsibilities, since...
