By Jim Chobot

iUniverse, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . These swashbuckling pirate tales will captivate both parent and child alike with their clever characters and awesome adventures. A must! --Marcia Vaughan, author My children loved these stories; they are terrific read-aloud tales. The unique characters, rich descriptions, and clever twists and turns kept them enthralled. And these are pirates we re happy to have our kids emulate--strong women, courageous cabin boys, and captains who love cats. --Nancy Morgan Barnes, M.Ed., parent and educator Follow the daring Sally McGee who must masquerade as a boy to sail the high seas. As her journey unfolds, she encounters an infamous pirate captain, and both of their lives are changed forever. In Pirates Revenge, Sally is forced to face the consequences of her actions and learns that pirating is not all sailing in fair winds. In Nameless, explore a wrecked ship with the Black Doubloon s Mr. Drat, as he rescues a mysterious young Portuguese girl left for dead. Learn why she must leave her dangerous past behind in order to survive. Sail along with Mr. Drat in The Captain s Cat, and discover why...
