One Sudanese widow in poor health. Hundreds of war orphans without hope. Susan Tabia saw them in her dreams, these children whose families were devastated in Sudan s civil war. In 994 she followed her dreams into the refugee camps of Northern Uganda, bringing love and compassion into desperate situations. Along the war-torn border of Sudan, her faith would be tested as she stared terror in the face, including a show down with the LRA. Join Mama Susan on a journey of faith over fear, as she offers these vulnerable children fresh hope and a bright future.
