Recently in our Church we have been teaching on Faith and began to look at the subject of employing the Word of GOD accurately in life situations. As the HOLY SPIRIT would have it, we got onto the subject of immigration, a challenge that many people are face in any country. After the service I asked a congregation member about the scriptures they were standing on in regards to their immigration status and received a rather unfocused, non targeted and non-specific scripture that couldn t even stir up the person concerned. I walked away wondering, how could the Word accomplish what is hoped for in that person s life? How could it stir up their faith? How could it get the results desired? Those questions and more spurred me to write this book to help every Christian in need of targeted scriptures and prayer, especially in the area of immigration case. The aim of this book is not to discuss the political implication of illegal immigrants and their associated problems nor is it written to fully discuss the human rights laws that relate to border restrictions. My aim is to offer those who want to rely on GOD through JESUS CHRIST targeted and effective help through the WORD to guide them through this tremendously difficult and unsettling challenge. I have tried to communicate what I believe is GOD s heart on this matter of Immigration. I believe that the will of GOD is that all men should be free to live where they choose. This freedom does not give the Christian the right to violate the rules laid down by any government according to Romans 13 but this freedom indicates that...
