Chased through time by her father's murderer, Houston architect Sheridan Wells unwittingly erases herself and hurtles back to 1877 Wyoming Territory, to the moment that changed her family's history forever—to the source of her father's wealth—wealth the villain swears is his. Heart locked by guilt, widower Alexander Reed, a War of the Rebellion hero-turned-rancher, attempts to disprove the transient woman's story, labels her a charlatan and intends to dismiss her, but his precocious daughter has already claimed Sheridan as her new mother. When the villain renews his quest for wealth and vengeance, Sheridan and Alexander must combine forces to defeat the crazed killer. This time, and no matter the cost—Alexander vows to protect his family. Will Sheridan's stalker claim his due, or will she find sanctity within the family of her heart . . . before the window of time fades forever into the 25th hour?.
