

Bell's Palsy Natural Treatments and Cures (Paperback)

By Johnathan Porter

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.With the sudden onset of Bell's Palsy, suddenly the muscles on one or both sides of your face are paralyzed. Your speaking becomes slurred, eating and smiling become difficult, your eyelids droop and have trouble blinking, and often there is severe pain. Your doctor will typically prescribe an anti-inflammatory medication, but many people seek further options, especially since no one knows for certain the real cause behind the paralysis. While inflammation and swelling of the facial nerve is the most logical cause of Bell's Palsy, knowing that the condition may last for weeks and that there might only be a partial recovery, educated patients often seek natural treatments that might help speed a full and complete recovery. Since it's not uncommon for Bell's Palsy symptoms to reoccur, this also suggests an alternative medicine approach to try to find and correct the condition's possible underlying causes. Knowing this, many people choose to take an adjunctive approach and assist their body in its healing through complementary, alternative therapies. This is where natural treatments come in. Many people...
