Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . 1955 and the US Navy have blocked the smuggling of Nazi loot by sea into Argentina. Israel s Mossad uncover a new route openly flaunting the secretive American banking system to pass packages through the NY docks and then on down across borders into South America. A chain of events make the FBI NY cops forget their differences and work together as a hit-man runs loose in Little Italy Chinatown. Enter a female FBI agent calling herself THOR: an under-cover street girl who finds herself romantically drawn into a part of American Heritage she feels has been willfully neglected. Ellis Island had been closed down the previous year, but illegal immigrants still slip in across the Canadian border to escape the aftermath of a war-torn Europe; adding to the underworld characters zoot-suited grifters who frequent the sepia smoked filled bars coffee houses of Little Italy Chinatown.A gang homicide is witnessed by a movie writer with a deadline for a story which gets him involved with Lieutenant Hooker: the crossword fanatic detective in his fedora hat and belted trench-coat. A man with a with a known reputation of being able to read your mind. He admits to his witness: I never break the law, I simply bend it to suit my facts!.
