Xulon Press, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book is an open discussion on marriage and family issues. It is a journey of personal struggles. It is a book that inspires hope. It incorporates extensive Scriptures and visual aids insights to help readers internalize reality and hence leave lasting imprints of the lessons being taught even after the book is closed. Part two of the book uses integrated counseling approach of both scientific and spiritual truths cited from various sources. End-of-chapter review questions encourage reflection and interactivity. This is a work that functions equally well as a devotional, a teaching guide, counseling resource for small or large groups and an engaging testimony as a contemporary illustrative case of God's Grace. The material is a very attractive resource for couples and adults who want to use it as an inspiring mirror to re-author their story. This is a must have marriage and family manual for every family. Patricia K. Makora, PhD, ABD; MA; BA; and Naphtali M W Makora, PhD, ABD; MA ESL; MA ED; BA, are spousal partners and are both practitioner scholars. Both are passionate practical down to earth born again Bible believers with a hope in the soon return of Jesus Christ; they respect diverse views of others within the global diverse multicultural community. Naphtali's scholarly pursuits are education and English (Elementary through higher Education); Patricia's is Counseling Psychology in which she has performed excellently as a student, university lecturer and as a professional practitioner. Besides this joint publication, Patricia has published a book: The Need to Integrate Spirituality with Psychology and Professional Ethics: A Lay Counselor Case Study, and a journal article: Counseling Sexual Addiction Under Grace, Testamentum Imperium: International Theology Journal Vol. 3 (no...
